Sunday Morning Bible Study Lessons

Topic of the Month—Standing in the Faith

Unit III has four lessons drawn from Romans that encourage believers to continue standing in the faith.

- The first lesson indicates that the righteousness of God comes through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe.
- The second lesson provides an example from the life of Abraham.
- The third lesson explores the meaning of being justified by faith.
- And the fourth lesson traces faith that comes from what is heard through the word of Christ—those who are called by Christ’s name are encouraged to confess with their lips, believe in their hearts, and stand in faith daily.

May 5—Justified by Faith Devotional Reading: John 3:1-8, 13-17

Background Scripture: Romans 3:21-30

Boasting is excluded in God’s economy since a person is justified by faith, not by works.

May 12—Counted as Righteous Devotional Reading: Genesis 15:1-6

Background Scripture: Romans 4:13-25

What God did for Abraham He does for us as well—and on the same basis.

May 19—Reconciled to God Devotional Reading: Acts 2:37-47

Background Scripture: Romans 5:1-11

Reconciliation was and is at God’s initiative, not ours.

May 26—Who Has Believed? Devotional Reading: Deuteronomy 30:11-20

Background Scripture: Romans 10:1-17

As Paul wrestled with attempts of approaching God via law-keeping vs. that of faith in Christ, so must we.

Never Too Late: African Americans Making Their Mark Check out this list of notables who achieved great success after age 50 by Barbranda Lumpkins Walls, AARP, January 12, 2017

Toni Morrison: The acclaimed author was 62 when, in 1993, she became the first African-American woman to win the Nobel Prize for Literature. Her impressive body of work includes the novels The Bluest Eye, Sula, Song of Solomon and Beloved.

Hubert Jones: In 2003, Jones was 69 when he founded the Boston Children's Chorus, which includes young people of different ages, races, ethnicities and socioeconomic backgrounds. Its mission combines artistic excellence and an agenda for social change. The group has performed all over the world.

Vinnette Carroll: At 50, Carroll became Broadway's first African-American woman director with her musical revue Don't Bother Me, I Can't Cope. She is also known for Your Arms Too Short to Box With God, which she brought to the Great White Way three times.

Gordon Parks: A renowned photographer, Parks was 57 when he became the first African-American to direct a major Hollywood movie with The Learning Tree in 1969. He followed the success of that film with the groundbreaking box office hit Shaft in 1971.

Thurgood Marshall: At 59, Marshall became the first African-American justice on the U.S. Supreme Court. He was appointed by President Lyndon B. Johnson and joined the court in October 1967. He served for 24 years until his retirement in 1991. As a civil rights attorney, Marshall successfully argued one of the most important cases of the 20th century, the landmark Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka, which overturned the "separate but equal" doctrine in educational facilities for black students.

Cheryl Boone Isaacs: In 2013, Isaacs became the first African-American to serve as president of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences at age 64. The public relations executive was also the first black woman to head a major studio's marketing operation when she joined New Line Cinema in 1997.

Dawn M. Blackman Sr.: In 2003, Blackman first started gardening in Champaign, Ill., with neighborhood children. The project turned into the Randolph Street Community Garden, and at 55, the former caterer and dress shop owner became the garden steward in 2006. The project is making a difference in the community, located in a "food desert" where fresh, affordable produce is difficult to find.

Bible Reading Plan

Focusing on the Holy Spirit

Are you wanting a deeper connection with God? Do you long for more of God's presence and leadership in your life? Seek the Holy Spirit through scripture reading. Below you'll 40 readings covering the Old and New Testament.

Use these prompts as you read each Scripture:

ATTENTION: Read or listen to the Scripture. What word, phrase or verse captures your attention? Underline it or copy it onto a piece of paper.

CONNECTION: What connections do you see to other scriptures? To your own experience or current situation? To the character or promises of the Holy Spirit?

ACTION: What is the Holy Spirit inviting you to say or do?

STILLNESS: Spend some time in stillness with the Holy Spirit. Settle, listen. Allow the Holy Spirit to calm and strengthen you.
