Dr. Krista Holland Suprena Hickman

DOROTHY B. JOHNSON AWARD RECIPIENT

Dr. Krista C. Holland

Educator

Dr. Krista Crawford Holland was born and raised in Burlington, North Carolina. She is in the second class of NC Teaching Fellows Scholars, and earned a BS in Middle Grades Education, with concentrations in English Language Arts and Social Studies from UNC-Greensboro. She also became a member of the Omicron Eta Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. in the spring of 1990. She taught in Guilford County Schools and Champaign Unit 4 Schools District in Champaign, Illinois. She has a Masters in Higher Education Administration from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

She served as a Middle Grades English Language Arts Consultant for the NC Department of Public Instruction focused on supporting low-performing schools in the northeastern part of the state. Her interests in serving as a school leader were piqued, and she was appointed to her first administrative assignment, Assistant Principal at Bradley Creek Elementary School in New Hanover County. She earned a Master's in School Administration from UNC-W, and served as a school and district leader in New Hanover County Schools for over 20 years.

She served as principal of J.C. Roe Pre-K Center, and as the district's first Director of Preschool Programs. She stepped away from the district for a year, and returned to serve as an Assistant Principal at Bellamy Elementary and Noble Middle Schools before being named principal at the former Gregory School of Science, Mathematics, and Technology. Her last assignment in the district was principal at Anderson Elementary School, where she was named the 2018-2019 NHCS Principal of the Year. During her tenure at Anderson, Dr. Holland returned to school once again, and earned her doctorate in Educational Leadership from High Point University. She also served as president of the New Hanover County Principals and Assistant Principals Association. She retired in June 2022, after serving 30 years in public education. She was not very good at retirement, and in March 2023, she began working at NC State University's Friday Institute for Educational Innovation as a Professional Learning Scholar, where she designs and implements training in best instructional practices for teachers and school leaders.

When she is not working with educators, she is very active in her sorority, The Wilmington (NC) Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. and she is the co-chair of The Delta Foundation of the Cape Fear, the chapter's non-profit entity. She enjoys reading, gardening, and exercising. She has been married to Derek Holland for 27 years, and they have one son, Xavier Jordan, a May 2024 ECU graduate who works and lives in Tampa, Florida. The Holland family are members of Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church.

Sunday Morning Bible Study Lessons

Topic of the Month—Leaders Set Worship Example

Unit I begins with the example of (Abram) Abraham, who built altars to mark those occasions on which God called him to greater faithfulness.

- Lesson 2 reveals Solomon’s worshipful awareness of people’s tendency to sin.
- Lesson 3 shows us Hezekiah’s prayerful realization of what’s most important: the Lord alone is God.
- Lesson 4 demonstrates the importance of spiritual leadership, as evidenced through Josiah’s call to bring back the people to the right worship as prescribed in the “book of the covenant.”

September 1—Abram Builds an Altar

Devotional Reading: Philippians 4:10-19

Background Scripture Genesis 12-13

Throughout life, threshold opportunities arise that determine our future. Abram built altars to mark those occasions on which God called him to greater faithfulness.

September 8—Solomon Dedicates the Temple

Devotional Reading: Psalm 34:11-22

Background Scripture: 1 Kings 8:22-53

Great events cause people to anticipate a better future. At the worship-dedication of the temple, Solomon called on God to hear and heed the Israelites’ future prayers.

September 15—Hezekiah’s Prayer

Devotional Reading: Romans 8:29-39

Background Scripture: 2 Kings 19:14-20, 29-31

Disaster seems inevitable when a chain of events points to an inescapable outcome. In a time of crisis, Hezekiah turned to worshipful prayer and was heard.

September 22—Josiah Celebrates Passover

Devotional Reading: 2 Chronicles 34:8, 14-27

Background Scripture: 2 Chronicles 35:1-6, 16-19

Promises and commitments can become neglected over time as their importance is forgotten and otherwise not communicated. King Josiah called on his people to celebrate Passover as an act of renewed obedience to worship as prescribed in God’s covenant.

September 29—Moses and Miriam Lead in Praise

Devotional Reading: Psalm 104:1-9

Background Scripture: Exodus 15:1-3, 11-13, 17-18, 20-21

People enjoy finding opportunities to celebrate. Moses and Miriam led the people with praises in song for God’s victory.
