To My Church Family

With Sincere thanks and appreciation.
May God bless you.

Sister Mary Washington and family

To Pastor Henry & all my church family, I would like to thank you for all of the love and support that was shown to me during the passing and home going of my mother Jessie B. Brown. Whatever role you took, it was greatly appreciated.
God's love was shown in you and that has given me the strength that was needed. Thank you Pastor Henry for presiding for such a beautiful homegoing.

Again thank you Macedonia for your caring and loving ways that was shown at the most difficult times.
I thank God for each of you !!!

Sincerely, Sister Priscilla Streety & Family

Topic of the Month—The Genesis of Altars and Sacrifices: Unit I shows that building altars and making sacrifices predates the Mosaic law. Lesson 1 looks at the first known offerings to God in the Bible, those given by Cain and Abel in Genesis 4. Lesson 2 follows Noah. As the floodwaters subside, he stepped onto dry land, built an altar, and offered burnt offerings to God. In lesson 3, Genesis 22 relates Abraham’s most significant test of faith—the willingness to sacrifice his only son, Isaac, to God. Lesson 4 fast forwards in time to Isaac as a mature man of faith who builds his own altar and calls on the name of the Lord. In lesson 5, the texts from Genesis 28, 33, and 35 are examined as Jacob leads the next generation in faith and builds altars to worship Yahweh.

June 1—Cain and Abel Offer Sacrifices

Giving gifts to show appreciation and honor is a common practice. How do we expect our gifts to be received? From their very livelihood, Cain and Abel offer gifts to God, but Cain grew angry because Abel’s gift was more pleasing to God.

June 8—Noah Builds an Altar

When people come through harrowing events, they feel grateful. How do people express these feelings? After the Great Flood, Noah built an altar on dry land and offered burnt offerings that so pleased the Lord that God promised never again to destroy the earth with a flood.

June 15—Abraham Makes an Offering

Obedience and trust are marks of commitment to one another. What do we offer to demonstrate ultimate allegiance and commitment? Abraham passes the test of faithfulness to God in his willingness to sacrifice his own son, Isaac, on the altar.

June 22—Isaac Calls on the Name of the Lord

As children grow to adulthood, they step into their own lives. What do we take with us from our family of origin? Isaac receives the blessing and promises that God made to his father, Abraham. In response, Isaac builds an altar and calls on the name of the Lord.

June 29—Jacob Sets Up a Sacred Pillar

Meaningful events and places can hold a lasting impression. How do we mark important events in life? Jacob marks his important encounters with altars, offerings, and signs of worship.

Bible Reading Plan

Modern Idol Worship

In our lives today, an idol can be anything that takes God's rightful place in our hearts. This could be our smartphones, our busy schedules, our bank accounts, or even our comfort zones. Anything that consistently draws our time, attention, and affection away from God can become an idol.

Identifying Our Modern Idols

The first step to dealing with idolatry is recognizing it. It starts with a simple question: What am I prioritizing over God? It might not be obvious until you really think about where you spend your energy and what occupies your mind the most.

Avoiding Modern Idols

Once we identify these idols, it's crucial to consciously and deliberately place God first again. This might mean setting specific times for prayer and Bible study, making conscious choices about our use of time, or reevaluating our goals and values to ensure they align with God's plans for us.

Applying This Concept to Our Struggles

Every day brings its own challenges, and it's easy to let these struggles become the center of our universe.

By the first day
 the water had dried up the covering from the ark of the ground was dry of the second month
 Then God said to Noah
 And their wives
 The birds the animals
 And they can multiply of the first month from the earth and saw that the surface

 By the twenty seventh day the earth was completely dry Come out of the ark Bring out every kind and all the creatures on the earth

of Noahs six hundred and first year Noah then removed you and your wife and your sons of living creature that is with you that move along the ground
